UNIQUE VILLA FOR SALE WITH LANDSCAPED VIEWS!!! Originally this property was a church that has been converted into a luxury villa, owned by a sculptor who seeks perfection in her art and her interior design. The house has an interesting history. Not only was it a church on Sundays, it was used as a primary school on weekdays. But from being an old community building of the past, times have changed. Furnished with designer pieces, innovative details and state of the art comfort, it's now a totally modern and stylish home. The monochrome decor of the house is simple and clean. With its glass walls and high ceilings, on paper it could sound stark. But it's not, it's light, bright and welcoming. With 360 degree views of the surrounding countryside, it really is a beautiful place to spend time in. There is plenty of parking for at least 4 cars in a circular paved area in front of the house and behind the property's electrically operated gate. Leading off the living space are the kitchen and dining areas. The kitchen has sleek lines and all the best equipment. You'll find an induction hob with two ovens (one normal, one normal combined with microwave) lots of pots and pans, and a DeLonghi coffee machine. Plenty of crockery and cutlery is provided, including glasses (stylish plastic) for outside use in the pool area. The kitchen and the bedrooms of the house have marvellous evening sunset views over the lake. The typically Spanish town of Periana is only two minutes' drive up the road. As well as having restaurants, bars, shops and banks, conveniently to hand, it offers a glimpse of real Spanish life away from the more touristy areas. That said, the beaches of the Costa Tropical and Costa del Sol are only half an hour's drive away, but inland life goes at a different pace and with a totally different outlook.
