Marbella

Homeowners can relax in the communal gardens with sunbeds and parasols or swim a few lengths each day in the large community swimming pool supervised by a lifeguard.

Located between Marbella and Fuengirola and just a 30-minute drive to Malaga International Airport, Calahonda is extremely popular with overseas visitors and residents alike and offers a wide range of services and amenities for everyone. These include shopping centres, cafes and restaurants, golf courses, sports centres and health clubs, together with national and international schools, health centres, excellent transport links and many other attractions.

The close proximity of this duplex penthouse to all of these services and amenities make it the perfect combination of style, comfort and location. An excellent opportunity for a first time homebuyer or for an investor who is looking for great rental income.
