Set within an established gated community known for its calm atmosphere and proximity to golf and open countryside, this stunning apartment for sale in La Quinta, Benahavis presents a carefully renovated interior designed for a modern Mediterranean lifestyle. The location combines tranquility with convenient access to the coastline, local amenities and the wider Marbella area, making the property well suited to permanent living or low maintenance second home ownership in one of the Costa del Sol's most desirable hillside settings.

Recently upgraded to a high standard, the apartment provides approximately 100 square metres of built space, including a 20 square metre terrace that extends the interior outward. The reconfigured layout centres on an open living and dining area, where clean architectural lines and natural materials create a warm yet contemporary atmosphere. The exquisite kitchen is integrated into the main space, fitted with quality appliances, generous storage and refined finishes that elevate it beyond pure functionality into a central design feature of the home.

Three bedrooms and two bathrooms offer flexibility for family use, guests or rental potential. The principal bedroom is positioned towards the quieter side of the property, overlooking landscaped communal gardens and benefiting from a southwest orientation that ensures consistent natural light. The additional bedrooms are well proportioned and supported by modernised bathrooms finished in a restrained, cohesive palette.

The terrace functions as an extension of the living area, suitable for outdoor dining or relaxed evenings. Overlooking landscaped greenery, the apartment enjoys a private and tranquil setting in the community. Residents enjoy landscaped communal gardens and two swimming pools in a setting that encourages a relaxed lifestyle.

Benahavis is widely regarded as one of the Costa del Sol's most secure and well managed municipalities, recognised for its low-density planning, protected green zones and consistent long term property performance. The area pairs hillside calm with strong infrastructure and strategic positioning. San Pedro de Alcántara covers day to day needs, while Puerto Banus and Marbella extend the offering to fine dining, international retail and marina life, all comfortably accessible.

In this context, the property represents a measured investment in Benahavis, a location defined by stability, connectivity and enduring demand.
