Positioned within an established gated community, this luxury ground floor apartment for sale on Marbella's Golden Mile just minutes from the beach combines a carefully refurbished interior with close proximity to the coastline, restaurants and key amenities.

The main living area is arranged as an open, flowing space, where the lounge, dining area and kitchen connect naturally. The interior follows a calm, contemporary palette, with soft neutral tones, integrated lighting and carefully detailed finishes creating a cohesive environment. Wide sliding doors open directly onto the terrace, allowing natural light to move through the space and establishing a direct connection to the gardens beyond.

The kitchen is fully fitted and positioned as a central element within the layout, with clean lines, natural stone surfaces and integrated appliances. Its open configuration maintains a clear relationship with both the dining and living areas, supporting everyday use as well as more informal entertaining.

Marbella.

The property features four bedrooms and four bathrooms, arranged to provide both privacy and flexibility. The principal suite is set apart with a dedicated dressing area and a more generous en suite, while additional rooms maintain a consistent design approach. A separate office and a more intimate television room introduce further adaptable living spaces, allowing the layout to respond to diverse needs throughout the day.

The terrace extends the living space outdoors and is arranged as a defined seating area, positioned to overlook the communal gardens. From here, there is direct access to the landscaped grounds and swimming pool, reinforcing the connection between the apartment and its surroundings.

The development is fully gated and known for its mature planting, low-density layout and strong sense of privacy. Communal areas are carefully maintained, with multiple pool zones set within established greenery, creating a setting that feels both structured and relaxed.

Marbella's Golden Mile is widely recognised as one of the coast's most established residential areas, where close proximity to the shoreline is complemented by easy access to some of the region's most well-regarded restaurants, beach clubs, golf courses and everyday amenities. Over time, the area has evolved into a key lifestyle destination, with landmarks such as Puente Romano Beach Resort and neighbouring coastal venues continuing to shape its appeal, supported by strong connections along the wider coastline.

An apartment that combines layout, finish and location to create a more considered way of living on Marbella's Golden Mile, suited to both full-time residence and longer stays
