Unique in maintaining its original Andalusian charm with its narrow white washed streets famous for their colourful geranium filled flower pots culminating in Flower Square, the town centre has kept its aesthetics with fairly low rise buildings, yet the main high street which runs parallel to the fantastic beach promenade, lined with trendy chiringuitos offering the many delights of Andalusian cuisine, is a bustling hive of activity.

Located, close to the centre and the Estepona marina is this brand new development of contemporary apartments, with unbeatable panoramic views to the sea and the golf course, providing exceptional peace and tranquillity the complex is also just a stone's throw from the access to the toll road, providing convenient access to Malaga's International Airport as well as to the main urban centres along the Costa del Sol such
