The development spans two architecturally distinguished buildings. The first features six residential floors above a stylish commercial ground floor, with a partially shared rooftop terrace offering panoramic city views. The second presents ground-floor units and three upper floors, topped with an exclusive rooftop swimming pool and solarium, reserved solely for residents. With 54 automated parking spaces, storage rooms, and lifts, every detail is designed for ease and luxury.

Location could not be better. These apartments place you just steps from the train and metro stations, bus stops, gyms, supermarkets, shopping centres, and the iconic Calle Larios, while golden beaches are only 500 metres away, and the city centre lies just 1.9 km from your door. The nearby María Zambrano train station offers direct connections across Spain and the Fuengirola line, making commuting or exploring the Costa del Sol simple and convenient. Málaga Airport is just 15 minutes away, providing easy access to international destinations. Whether you are commuting, shopping, or enjoying a seaside stroll, everything is within easy reach.

Ideal for professionals, families, or investors seeking a prime foothold in Malaga's thriving urban core, these homes offer a unique opportunity to own a contemporary home in one of Spain's most dynamic cities.
