Where light, space, and setting come together in quiet harmony, a brand-new residential offering brings a curated collection of luxury apartments for sale in Nueva Andalucia, Marbella. Just minutes from the prestigious Aloha Golf Club, this distinctive development combines contemporary architectural elegance with an exceptional location, bringing a fresh perspective to coastal living.

The project features spacious two- and three-bedroom apartments, expansive penthouses, and dramatic top-floor homes that captivate from the moment you enter. Defined by clean lines and offering stunning views stretching from the Mediterranean Sea to the silhouette of La Concha mountain, each home is a masterpiece of natural light and refined design.

This private complex will be completed in phases, the first featuring just 16 homes across two elegant low-rise buildings. Some ground-floor units open onto private gardens, first-floor apartments come with large sun terraces, while penthouses ascend to a new level entirely, with private rooftop pools.

The amenities offer a sense of calm luxury reminiscent of a boutique retreat. A wellness spa with a heated indoor pool. A quiet, light-filled setting tailored for inspired work and creative thought. A gym designed for serious training, and outside, landscaped pools and lounges offer sun-soaked tranquillity, while a dedicated concierge ensures everything runs smoothly behind the scenes.

Set against the lush backdrop of a mountain forest and with easy access to the vibrant pulse of Marbella and Puerto Banus, this address offers far more than a place to live. It is a poised and confident expression of elevated living. Prestigious golf courses, golden beaches, renowned schools, and upscale conveniences are all just moments away. Yet once inside, the outside world feels distant, replaced by a deep sense of privacy and peace.

This development reflects a confident vision of contemporary living, perfectly suited to diverse needs, whether as a full-time residence, a tranquil retreat, or a discerning investment in one of Marbella's most desirable locations.
