Set in one of the most sought-after corners of the Costa del Sol, this limited release of just 11 designer townhouses and semi-detached villas for sale in Fuengirola with private pools brings together architectural flair, liveable luxury, and a setting that is hard to rival. With striking contemporary architecture, airy open-plan interiors, and every detail designed for today's lifestyle, each home feels like your own private sanctuary, just a short walk from the beach, cafés, shops, and everyday essentials.

A considered layout and refined finishes make each moment at home feel naturally elevated. With three intentionally placed bedrooms, two refined bathrooms, and a discreet guest toilet, the spaces are tailored for real life: flexible, functional, and quietly refined. Outside, a private pool and landscaped garden set the scene for slow mornings and golden-hour gatherings, while the rooftop solarium delivers spectacular sea views that turn every sunset into a spectacle.

A versatile semi-basement level opens up a range of possibilities, whether you imagine it as a cinema lounge, personal gym, creative studio, or a quiet place to work. Private parking and dual street access add everyday ease, blending naturally with the home's smart, functional design.

Fuengirola remains one of the Costa del Sol's most magnetic destinations, where Mediterranean charm meets everyday convenience. Known for its golden beaches, vibrant dining scene, and a relaxed yet cosmopolitan spirit, it continues to attract residents from across Europe in search of sunshine, quality of life, and year-round vitality.

These homes sit in a prime location with excellent connections: just minutes from the commuter train that links Fuengirola town centre directly to Málaga city centre and its international airport, and with quick access to both the A-7 and AP-7 motorways for smooth travel along the coast. Everything you need, from top schools and premier golf to marinas, shopping, and coastal walks, is within easy reach, making this address a gateway to an inspired lifestyle.
