Where the horizon glints against the Mediterranean and gentle hills gather in soft folds, these luxury sea view villas for sale in Mijas, Costa del Sol claim a setting that feels both open to the world and entirely your own. Only three exist, each shaped to capture shifting light, sea air, and the quiet drama of the landscape, conveniently located mere minutes from all essential amenities and leisure spots.

Inside the villas, the spaces are generous without feeling formal. Four bedrooms and four bathrooms are arranged for privacy, while the living areas open wide to the outdoors. Walls of glass pull in the views, and high ceilings add breathing room. Step outside to terraces shaded for long lunches, an infinity pool that seems to drift toward the horizon, and a rooftop vantage point, where sunrise and sunset feel like private performances.

The lower level is a space you can make your own, whether a home cinema, a gym, a games room, or a quiet retreat. Three covered parking spaces keep everything secure, and built-in storage keeps the lines of the home clean and uncluttered. Every finish has been chosen with care: porcelain flooring from Porcelanosa, precision aluminium framing with double glazing, underfloor heating in living spaces and bedrooms, and climate control through the Airzone system. The pools are heated for year-round use, and smart home pre-installation means the house can adapt to your way of living.

Beyond the gates lies a world of activity and relaxation. The nearby resort offers championship golf, paddle and tennis courts, a spa with thermal circuit, and dining that ranges from casual to refined. Beaches, coastal paths, and lively marinas are minutes away, while Malaga Airport is just 15 minutes by car and Marbella is 35. Mijas Pueblo, with its whitewashed charm, is close enough for impromptu visits.

These Mijas villas are built for more than holidays. They are a place to settle into the rhythm of the coast, to wake up to open skies, and to feel at home in one of the most striking locations in southern Spain.
