High above the coastline, where the land gently rises to meet the sky, lies a collection of stunning apartments for sale in El Higuero, Fuengirola with breathtaking sea views, designed for those who seek more than just a place to live. Across seven contemporary buildings, a selection of one, two, and three-bedroom residences invites you to enjoy hillside living just a five-minute drive from the beach and ten minutes from the town centre.

The interiors are calm and contemporary, with open layouts that invite natural light deep into every space. Subtle finishes and flowing proportions create a sense of harmony, while bedrooms are arranged as quiet sanctuaries to withdraw and rest. Each apartment comes with two parking spaces, and the residences themselves are southeast facing, with a choice of ground floor units opening to private gardens or penthouses with the option of adding a jacuzzi.
