This collection of luxury Mediterranean homes for sale in San Pedro de Alcantara offers villas, townhouses, and apartments designed with open living spaces, abundant natural light, and terraces that bring the outdoors into everyday life. The development provides a lifestyle that offers direct access to the beach alongside the town's cafés, shops, and cultural attractions, while remaining well connected to Marbella, Puerto Banus, and surrounding areas.

The apartments feature two or three bedrooms with open-plan living areas, designed to create bright, airy spaces. Private terraces open directly from the living areas, providing spaces for dining, relaxing, or entertaining. Each unit emphasizes practical layouts and comfort, creating a quiet, private atmosphere while remaining close to the amenities and character of the town.

Townhouses offer three or four bedrooms and generous living spaces that flow naturally to private terraces. Solariums provide additional outdoor space, and underground parking and access to communal areas ensure convenience without compromising privacy. Interiors are designed with both scale and function in mind, offering flexibility for daily life or extended living.

Villas are arranged on private plots with gardens and swimming pools. Layouts feature high ceilings, underfloor heating, fully equipped kitchens, and contemporary bathrooms. Floor-to-ceiling windows and patios allow natural light to fill the living areas, while private solariums provide outdoor retreats. Underground parking adds practicality, and every detail reflects quality finishes and careful planning.

Complementing their layout and finishes, the properties are closely tied to the rhythm of San Pedro de Alcántara, a town gaining prominence and known for its leafy streets, local markets, and a mix of traditional charm and contemporary amenities. Residents can stroll to cafés, boutiques, and cultural landmarks, or enjoy the town's seasonal festivals and vibrant community life. The coastline is just a short walk away, providing access to calm beaches and the wider Mediterranean. Close to Marbella, Puerto Banus, and surrounding communities, the homes offer a tranquil base from which the coast and town life are easily accessible.

Interiors filled with light, terraces that draw the outdoors in, and San Pedro de Alcántara's distinctive character give each home its own sense of place. Enquiries are welcomed to explore this exceptional coastal development.
