These contemporary apartments for sale in Los Pacos, Fuengirola are set within a gated residential community in one of the most established and evolving areas on the western side of Fuengirola. Positioned close to the coast yet slightly elevated, the development combines modern design, practical layouts and a well-connected location, creating homes suited to both everyday living and extended stays by the sea.

The development comprises forty-four homes with one, two, three and four-bedroom layouts. Ground floor residences benefit from private outdoor space, while upper-level units offer generous terraces and penthouses with private solariums. Interiors are designed with a focus on functionality and comfort, with open living areas that make full use of the available space and natural light.

A variety of shared amenities are available, offering practical spaces for both relaxation and everyday use. Landscaped areas surround two outdoor swimming pools as well as a heated pool, while a gym, spa, sauna and changing areas provide additional wellness options. A coworking space offers flexibility for remote working, and private parking and storage rooms ensure everyday convenience.

One of the key strengths of these apartments is their location. Set within Los Pacos and Torreblanca, the area has developed into a well-balanced residential neighbourhood that combines a quieter atmosphere with strong infrastructure a diverse, international community. The beach can be reached on foot, while the nearby train station provides direct connections along the coast to Malaga city and the airport. The town centre is only minutes away, offering a wide range of shops, restaurants and services.

This area continues to grow in popularity, particularly among both full-time residents and second home owners, thanks to its combination of accessibility, local amenities and proximity to the coastline. Its position along the Costa del Sol also makes it a practical base for reaching surrounding towns including Benalmadena, Torremolinos and Marbella.

With a well-connected setting, a range of on-site facilities and a variety of layouts, these Fuengirola apartments present a solid opportunity for those looking for a home that works equally well for everyday living or as a property with strong rental appeal.
