BROMLEY ESTATES

Marbella

Benahavis is one of the most sought after hillside white villages on the Costa del Sol, due to the ambience of the winding streets lined with whitewashed houses, shops, tapas bars and an incredible choice of first class restaurants. It's close proximity to the beaches and glamorous amenities of Marbella and Puerto Banús also play a role in its popularity with holiday makers and expats looking for the perfect property for sale on the Costa del Sol. It is also a magnet for nature lovers due to its hiking trails and nearby cork forests and the area is also great for golfers.

These incredible brand new Costa del Sol villas are available in a choice of 3 different layouts. Each features a spacious open plan living room with clearly defined zones for seating and dining areas, enhanced by floor to ceiling windows and large patio doors that lead to an enormous covered terrace. There are 3 generous bedrooms; the master suite has direct terrace access from which you can enjoy the stunning coastal views and state of the art en-suite facilities.

Additional notable features include 4 additional luxury bathrooms, cinema room, ironing room, technical room, store rooms, a sauna and gym. The exact configuration of these impressive brand new Costa del Sol villas can be decided by you. Private garages are also provided with each property, whether it is for one or more cars will depend upon the layout you choose.
