Just four of these luxury villas in the charming town of La Cala de Mijas have come to market and won't be around for long. La Cala is becoming a resort of gastronomic delights and offers some lovely beaches, cafes, bars and restaurants. The shops and quaint streets of Fuengirola and arty Malaga are in one direction with upmarket Marbella and Puerto Banus in the other. Living here you will never be far from enjoying all the Costa del Sol has to offer.

Perfectly positioned with the mountains of Mijas as a backdrop, these three bedroom, three bathroom villas are uniquely designed in a contemporary style that allows natural light to flood in. In turn this allows for fabulous views looking out of each villa. These luxury contemporary villas in La Cala de Mijas are open plan in design with floor to ceiling doors blending seamlessly with shaded terraces where dining alfresco will be the norm.

BROMLEY ESTATES

Marbella

Cream marble floors throughout add to the elegance and charm of these luxury contemporary villas in La Cala de Mijas. A fully equipped kitchen boasts high quality appliances and additionally for your comfort there is underfloor heating and air conditioning throughout.

Upstairs the three bedrooms are spacious and come complete with fitted wardrobes and en suite bathrooms with porcelain tiles. The master suite opens out onto an expansive terrace with glass balustrades and panoramic views. The perfect spot to relax and watch the sun go down after a challenging day on the golf course.

Outside the spacious garden comes complete with an irrigation system and LED outdoor lighting. Your own private pool adds to the exterior ambience at night as it too is lit. The garden is perfect for relaxing and features an exterior shower. For your security there is a video door entry on both lower and upper levels of the villa and the underground garage is accessed electronically via automatic sectional door.

These luxury contemporary villas in La Cala de Mijas are new to the market and will not be around for long as they offer a fabulous location combined with a chic urban living space right in the heart of the Costa del Sol.
