La Reserva del Higuero is fast becoming one of the most sought-after and desirable residential locations on the Costa del Sol, boasting a modern living environment with luxury facilities and onsite services guaranteeing a healthy and quality way of life.

A new addition to this exclusive Costa del Sol residential area of La Reserva del Higuero is this spectacular avant-garde villa with its stunning views to the Mediterranean sea.

Boasting a striking avant-garde style this superb villa is the embodiment of luxury living whilst remaining minimalist and stylish. The main premise of this project consisted of maximising brightness in all rooms by flooding them with natural sunlight light and enhancing the luminosity of the living areas.

The unusual shape makes this luxury Cost del Sol villa an exclusive and unique design, both in terms of architecture and outer views combining wavy, smooth, and modern lines.
