This enchanting finca for sale in Ojen with a wooden house and private swimming pool sits at the edge of untouched nature, surrounded by mountains, orchards, and groves of citrus and olive trees that shape every view. Every inch of the home, from floors and ceilings to walls and beams, is formed from warm, natural wood, giving the home a timeless character and a sense of connection to the landscape. The property is near the whitewashed village of Ojen, just 10 kilometres from Marbella.

Light pours into the spacious living room, highlighting the fireplace as a natural gathering point, while the dining area and fully fitted kitchen complement the home's warm, inviting atmosphere. Three generous bedrooms and two bathrooms offer space for rest and privacy, complemented by a study room that doubles as a quiet retreat or workspace.

Outside the finca transforms into a private haven. A stunning swimming pool waits amid lush gardens and mature trees, blending naturally into the surroundings and offering cool relief on warm summer days.

Terraces stretch from the house, some covered, some open, while fruit trees, including avocado, citrus, and olive, dot the landscape alongside ponds, flowering shrubs, and open lawns, creating endless corners to explore, relax, or simply breathe. Hours can pass here without noticing, as each view and feature invites pause and appreciation.

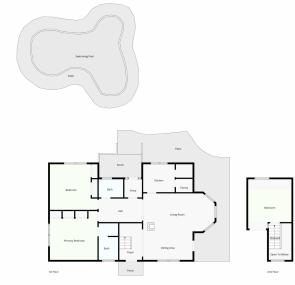

Practical features blend with this idyllic setting. Exterior private parking, laundry room, water tank, barbecue area, air conditioning, heating, double-glazed windows, and optional furniture make life convenient while preserving the home's natural charm. High-speed Wi-Fi, a private terrace, and sweeping country and mountain views ensure comfort without compromising connection to the landscape.

Ojen offers a lifestyle defined by a strong sense of community, appealing equally to families and those seeking a peaceful retreat. Surrounded by mountains and open countryside, it is a place where children grow up with space to roam and freedom, and where artists, writers, and retirees are inspired by the clarity of the light and the quiet landscape. Outstanding hiking and cycling routes begin at the village and wind through forests, hills, and panoramic viewpoints. The village retains its traditional whitewashed charm and relaxed pace, while remaining closely connected to Marbella just 10 kilometres away, providing easy access to beaches, international schools, dining, golf, cultural life, and more.

Days at this finca begin with fresh mountain air and end beneath a canopy of stars, offering an invitation to live fully, simply, and beautifully.
