There is a place in Benahavis where the sea and sky blur into one horizon—where nature, architecture, and artistry converge in a symphony of space and light. This luxury Los Flamigos villa for sale with sea views offers space, serenity, and sheer spectacle in equal measure.

Arrive in style via a stately stone driveway that winds through lush, manicured grounds in the heart of Los Flamigos, leading you to a residence that feels both secluded and expansive. Step inside, and you are immediately drawn into a main living area designed to impress and unwind—where a floating fireplace and exposed timber accents warm the polished marble floors, and floor-to-ceiling windows open to a sweeping terrace. From here, the view steals the show: rolling green fairways, endless blue sea, and an infinity-edge pool that melts into the horizon. An alfresco dining area and built-in BBQ beneath the open sky set the perfect scene for relaxed entertaining and long, sun-soaked evenings.
