The third and final floor leads to a fantastic roof terrace space, perfect for enjoying all day sunshine.

This property benefits from a selection of generous outdoor spaces, including a large covered garden terrace to the rear of the property, ideal for al fresco dining and entertaining throughout the year. A large shed is currently in place for additional storage and can be removed if desired.

The property also includes a substantial roof terrace with great potential and lovely views over the marina and towards the sea.

As a fantastic addition, this property also includes a private underground parking space just a short walk across the road within the urbanisation at Las Gaviotas. There is also plenty of off- road parking directly outside the property.
