Beautiful apartment in La Carihuela, Torremolinos

Picture yourself in La Carihuela, the old fishing quarter of Torremolinos and still one of the most sought after spots on this stretch of the Costa del Sol. It is the kind of place people fall for and keep coming back to, a long sandy beach lined with chiringuitos, the smell of fresh fish on the grill, and a relaxed promenade of bars, shops and restaurants that runs all year, not just for the summer. Everything is on foot here, which is exactly why buyers love it.

The apartment sits in a well known, established complex right in the heart of it all, walking distance to the beach, the bars, the shops and the restaurants. It is centrally located in the best sense, quiet and comfortable at home, with everything you could want a short stroll from your door. Communal parking is included, and the apartment looks out over the pool and community gardens, a lovely green outlook to come home to.

BROMLEY ESTATES

Marbella

Inside, the home is bright and easy to live in. A large open plan living and dining room sits alongside an American style kitchen, with plenty of natural light pouring through. The living room leads onto a well sized balcony with those lovely views over the garden and pool, the perfect spot for a morning coffee or a long, sunny afternoon. The apartment faces south west, so you catch the warm afternoon and evening sun, and air conditioning is installed throughout for the warmer months.

The main bedroom is a generous double with fitted wardrobes, and the bathroom is a good size with a walk in shower. The whole apartment is in good condition and ready to enjoy, calm, comfortable and full of light.

A home like this works on every level. A beautiful holiday home by the sea, an easy lock up and leave, or a smart investment in a barrio people return to year after year. La Carihuela rarely stays quiet for long, and apartments in a complex like this are always in demand.
